

Tebbetts Guest Kiwanis Speaker

TELLS OF BASEBALL EXPERIENCES

One of the most enjoyable talks heard by the members of the Kiwanis club was by George "Birdie" Tebbetts at their meeting Wednesday. The club had a nearly 100% attendance and many guests were present. Norman E. Butler, manager of the Grayling Funeral Home, was admitted to membership at the meeting.

Guests present were Judge John C. Shafter and his stenographer Samuel Atkins (mayor of West Branch), Hans L. Petersen, Clarence Johnson, and L. Kramer of Saginaw.

Baseball and some of his experiences were the themes of Mr. Tebbetts' talk. He prefaced his address by thanking the people of Grayling for the grand way in which they had received him among them, really, as one of them. He said he hoped to make Grayling his home.

One of the things he wishes to bring to the public is that of night baseball. He gave some very sensible reasons for his objection to night playing and cited a number of valid reasons why he opposed it. This form of the national pastime is very rigidly opposed by major league players and, in their opinion, is dangerous. He told of one instance during a night game when the catcher threw the ball to head off a steal of second base when the fielder dropped the ball and it wasn't found before the base runner went all the way to home for a score.

His story of his experiences in minor and major league baseball were highly interesting and was interspersed with some highly amusing stories.

While the usual time allotted to Kiwanis guest speakers is 30 minutes, it was nearly an hour before the audience would permit Mr. Tebbetts to close his talk. Many pertinent questions were asked, all of which he answered very satisfactorily.

Speaking of Charles Gehringer, the latter has stated that no baseball player in the world is worth more than an annual salary of $25,000 a year, while he, Tebbetts, would be glad to accept as his salary all that Gehringer gets over that amount.

His discussion of some of the players on the Tiger team and other players that we read about were highlights in his address.

Mr. Tebbetts is an interesting and fascinating speaker and has a story that is "tops" with any crowd that enjoys the national pastime.

Harold (Spike) MacNeven is to be thanked for arranging for Mr. Tebbetts to talk to the Kiwanians.

Tonight the members of the Grayling club are invited to attend a meeting given by the Traverse City club complimenting Gladwin Lewis, retiring district governor of Michigan. Several from here expect to attend.

The meeting next week will be held on Thursday evening (instead of Wednesday noon) at Horseshoe Lake club, where they will be guests of the proprietor, George Worthey.

Stockholders Meeting

The annual meeting of the stockholders of Grayling State Savings Bank was held in the office of the bank, Tuesday afternoon at which time a detailed statement of the past year's business was presented to each stockholder present. At the election of officers and directors, all the old officers and directors were reelected. They are as follows:

DID YOU SLEEP WELL LAST NIGHT?

It not, you can learn how by taking advantage of the newly discovered secrets science has uncovered. In the University of Chicago, a laboratory under the direction of Professor Kleitman has studied "human guinea pigs" for a total of more than 10,000 nights of sleep. The results of this extensive study is offered by William Benton. Read his article in This Week, the color-gravure magazine with next Sunday's Detroit News.

DOWN THE AU SABLE EVERY MONTH OF YEAR

Chas. Gehringer Initiated In River Canoeing

To John Bruun weather means nothing whenever he gets a yen to take a canoe trip down the mighty AuSable. Winter, spring, summer and autumn each offers its thrills to canoeists and John and his canoe have tested its waters at some time during each month of the year—January to December. Whether under a hot sun in July or the bleakest of February days, when it has been necessary at time to carry his canoe over frozen streams to the next open water, it was all the same to him.

Waldo Hildebrand, secretary-manager of the Michigan Association of Insurance Agents of Lansing, had extracted a promise from Mr. Bruun to take him and Charles Gehringer, Detroit Tiger star, on one of these trips.

Accordingly last Thursday evening Mr. Hildebrand and the famous Gehringer arrived in Grayling and the former reminded Mr. Bruun of his promise. "I never go back on a promise," Mr. Bruun replied. "I don't know anything about baseball and Gehringer doesn't know anything about canoeing, and Hildebrand doesn't know anything about either so this should make a good party."

So at 8:30 Friday morning the trio set out from U.S.-27 bridge, with John in the prow, Hildebrand in the stern each with a paddle, and Charlie seated in the middle. A 25 mile trip to Wakeley bridge is a long canoe journey even in the summer, but with high water and swift currents and frigid weather, with the AuSable flowing thru the grandest winter scenery that may be imagined, it offers the greatest of thrills.

All went well until Hildebrand dropped his movie camera into the river. His attempts to fish it out nearly capsized the canoe and Bruun exclaimed, "There is no need of giving all of us a ducking, dive in and get the camera and we won't all have to get wet." Waldo wasn't long on deciding and soon he was down at the bottom of the river where the muskrats swim, and came out holding the precious camera. A fire soon dried his clothes and the trio pushed on to further adventures.

Noting the ease in which John and Waldo plied their paddles, Charlie vowed that he would like to try the piloting. "Sure, go ahead," his companions exclaimed. All went well for a while but at a sharp bend in a swift current, a sweeper, which is the base of all neophyte guides, the canoe slid underneath and Charlie, in the stern, reached up and grabbed the reclining tree. Next thing he was suspended in the air with only his heels holding onto the canoe. Luckily the boat could be shoved back and the "hero" rescued without having to take the ducking that usually goes with such a catastrophe.

Cameras clicked when this party left Grayling and also when they disembarked at the Wakeley bridge, where a warm fire awaited them, and they most heartily welcomed it. It was 8:30 p. m. when they got there.

To quote the Tiger star—"the trip was one of the finest I ever had" and all declared they would not have missed the thrills and winter beauty they had enjoyed despite the cold.

All agreed the trip was a great experience and its memories will linger long in the minds of the trio. Mr. Gehringer says he is anxious to have another some day.

State To Get Out Of Liquor Business

The controversial issue of liquor control—as long as a demand for liquor exists, controversy is inevitable—is injected into the 1939 program by the Governor with an emphasis on greater revenue earnings by the state.

Governor Fitzgerald would take the state out of the retail business whereby the state maintains community liquor stores for sale of liquor purchased by the state at wholesale in large quantities. Retail merchants would take over the selling. The state would act as "a clearing warehouse, a tax collecting agency and an enforcing arm."

"I believe that with proper adjustments, greater revenues could be derived if state liquor stores were abolished," he points out. "Hundreds of thousands of dollars could be saved in decreased payrolls, rent, maintenance and so forth." This policy has the endorsement, it is understood, of Lieutenant Governor Luren Dickinson of Charlotte, a long-time dry.

State Tourist Bureau

Following a cue given by many tourist-minded states, Fitzgerald favors the retention of the state tourist bureau which was created by the last legislature with $50,000 state funds.

Coordination of tourist promotion work so that a central advertising campaign is carried on for Michigan as a whole would be continued by the Governor with $100,000 at his bidding, instead of $50,000.

However, half of the additional $50,000 would be utilized to promote the sale of Michigan agricultural products on a matching of state aid basis. The success of Maine, Washington, Oregon, and Idaho in promotion of their agricultural products through advertising is well known. Fitzgerald endorses this growers' movement with an offer to match their funds up to $25,000.

Blue Goose Lines To Run Snow Buses

BUSES TO LEAVE DETROIT FRIDAYS, RETURNING SUNDAY EVENINGS.

$14.95 Pays For Trips, Meals, Lodgings, Park Admissions.

Thru the enterprise of the Eastern Michigan Motorbuses, Blue Goose buses will run weekly trips from Detroit to Grayling, for the purpose of winter sports.

These buses will leave Detroit every Friday (weather permitting) at 5:30 p. m. and remain at Grayling until 4:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The fare for the trip is $14.95 per person and includes the bus trip both ways, lodging and meals at Shoppensons Inn, transportation and admission to the winter park and six park concession tickets. This is an all-expense trip and passengers will have no further necessary expenses.

Traveling on snow buses is something new and modern. The buses are the latest, up-to-the-minute make. Reclining chairs enable passengers to relax and to rest in comfort. They are always comfortable, warm and pleasant.

This will give the passengers two whole days in Grayling where they may participate in all types of winter sports at the most highly developed winter sports park in America. Also for those who wish to fish, Lake Margrethe, one mile from the winter park, offers them as good fishing as Northern Michigan provides.

We shall look forward with considerable interest as to the public's interest in this venture and as to what success it may attain.

POSTOFFICE BUILDING YEAR OLD

The first anniversary of the occupancy of the new Post Office building has revealed its importance as part of the civic interest of the community, and the consequence in raising the postal revenue of the Grayling post office to the highest level in its history. During the past twelve months the postal receipts has shown an increase of about $1200.00, a noteworthy gain in stamp sales and miscellaneous receipts, and excludes the substantial business reflected in the money order and postal savings sections. The local post office had an unusual high capita sale ranking for United States Savings Bond sales for an office of its size, and ranked twenty-six for post offices in Michigan.

As a result of this fine showing the Grayling post office enters the next higher classification of second class post offices effective with the beginning of the next fiscal year. This advancement provides a $100.00 increase to the salary of Postmaster McDonnell. This is the first time, the receipts of the Grayling postoffice have made this possible.

Postal receipts being considered one of the most reliable factors in determining a city's business growth and status, the increase in business at the local postoffice bespeaks good business conditions in Grayling the past twelve months, and is indicative of a promising future for the community.

James McDonnell, Postmaster

Notice To All Parents

The schools, churches and picture show have been closed to children and to prevent their concentration and to prevent further outbreak of scarlet fever.

I have a report that a number of school children have been out at the Winter Sports park which is also an ideal way to spread contagion. Therefore we are requesting your cooperation and support in keeping your children home until this epidemic is brought under control.

Chamber of Commerce Outlines Plans

Organization and plans of the Grayling Chamber of Commerce were outlined at the monthly meeting of the Board of Directors on January 4th. Because of the interest shown and the big membership of 105 members, an increase of 47 over last year, it is proposed to carry out a good program for the year contingent on the restricted finances, and, of course, the individual responsibility and effort of the respective committee assignments.

Business of the organization now under consideration and action includes the following:

Securing new advertising literature for Grayling and Crawford County. The present supply of the old advertising folder is about exhausted, and the many changes desired and needed in a new folder will not permit a reprint of the former issue. The many inquiries being received makes it a necessity that a comprehensive part of the folder be devoted to Winter Sports with emphasis on the program and facts of the Grayling Winter Sports Park. The Board of Directors allotted $350.00 for the cost of 10,000 new folders, and it is hoped that funds from the East Michigan Tourist Ass'n. will be allocated, too, to enable the organization to print an attractive 1939 advertising folder.

Changing the position of the Tourist Information booth to a place nearer the City of Grayling to enable the booth to accomplish its good purpose—more extensively serving the tourists and for profitably serving the merchants and those offering services to the transients. It is proposed to list each member of the Grayling Chamber of Commerce under a classification of business and services, such as sporting goods, cottages for rent, cabins, drugs, groceries, lumber, fishing services, etc. Under such an arrangement the members of the Chamber of Commerce will receive prior rights on the facilities of the booth before any non-member will be considered. The booth will be operated in a business-like manner under a competent attendant, and it is hoped under the sponsorship of the WPA recreational program, which sponsored this service in the summer of 1938.

Securing better roads in Crawford and adjacent counties. Plans are now being made to send a delegation of Crawford, Kalkaska and Grand Traverse county officials to visit Lansing and urge the improvement and the immediate surfacing of the Kalkaska to Traverse City highway. This has been promised for some time and it is hoped that by such united action of all the counties involved that something definite in the way of action will be accomplished. It is planned, also, to present before the Board of Road Commissioners of Crawford and Montmorency counties, the bad condition of the road between Lovells and Lewiston. The condition of the road is an obstacle in making Grayling a trading center for the people in Montmorency county and particularly the Twin Lakes section, and it is time for this road to have some improvement made by the respective road groups.

Promoting industrial possibilities for the community. Several industrial possibilities are now under consideration, and it is believed by effort and certain contacts they have potentialities. This matter will have the concern of the industrial committee at once.

Responsibility for the success of the committee assignments will be in the hands of the following:

Highway Committee—
Anthony J. Nelson, Chairman.

Alfred Hanson, Ronnow Hanson, Axel M. Peterson.

Industrial Committee—
Royal A. Wright, Chairman;
John Bruun, George Burke,
Fred R. Welsh.

Publicity and Tourist Information Committee—
O. P. Schumann, Chairman;
Emil Giegling, Herluf Sorenson, T. P. Peterson, George N. Olson.

Civic Committee—
Roy O. Milnes, Chairman; F. J. Mills, George Granger, Chas. E. Moore, Hans L. Petersen.

Entertainment and Reception—
George Stanley, Chairman;
Harold McNeven, Roy Trudgeon.

Agricultural Committee—
Dan C. Babbitt, Chairman;
Amos Hunter, Fred Larke.

Measles Gets Good Start In County

Last week saw a new difficulty break out in this vicinity. Measles have a good start in Frederic, Lovells, Maple Forest and Beaver Creek.

Health officer Wheeler of Frederic and the supervisors of the affected townships began immediate action to curb the menace and it is believed it will be stamped out before it reaches an epidemic stage.

Quarantine and warning signs are being posted on homes where there are cases and the officers are definite in their determination to enforce the quarantine and warning orders.

The penalty for such violation is punishable by law and should be avoided by strict compliance with the terms of the warning or quarantine laws.

Womans Club

The Womans Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Jesse Sales Monday evening.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Stanley Stealy, Miss Josephine Nichols presided at the business session.

Mrs. C. J. McNamara, chairman of the Program Committee, introduced Mr. George Granger who spoke to the Club on the proposal of a City Municipal Electric plant. He read extracts from reports of electrical engineers and spoke of the need of changes in electrical service in Grayling.

Miss Margrethe Hemmingsen read a paper on "Early Memories of Grayling." The paper covered much of the early history of the city and contained a great many incidents which were of interest to the club. The article is being published elsewhere in the Avalanche.

CCC ENROLLEES MOVED TO ILLINOIS

CCC enrollees, who have been under command of Capt. Burton O. Morrison at what is known as Camp AuSable, were transferred to LeRoy, Illinois Friday. That same day Camp AuSable became inhabited by a veterans organization, numbering 213 men, and they were moved here from Atlanta in Presque Isle County. The camp will still be known as Camp AuSable, but the number has been changed to 1617 instead of 681 as it has been known. Captain Morrison, during the time he was in charge of the camp made many friends in and around Grayling who are sorry to have him leave. The veterans camp is the second one to be located here, there being another at Camp Hartwick Pines.

Frank F. Pritchard, Captain Inf.-Res., is in command of Camp AuSable and we are sure he and Mrs. Pritchard will be very welcome to this community.

DOES NOT PUT IT OUT OF TUNE

Discords are entirely a matter of the mind. As far as the musical instruments are concerned, there is no difference between harmonious chords and discords. They simply consist of various kinds of vibrations of the strings or other parts of the instrument. The harm done to pianos by unskilled musicians and children is due rather to the "thumping" and general ill-treatment. Musical combinations which are considered "chords" by some people are classed as rank discords by others. This is largely a matter of taste and education.

LUMBER YARD LOCALS

We have several kinds of building paper. Some one of them will be the one you want.

Our shiplap and common boards are all under cover and nice to use. It pays to use them.

We have a grade of wallboard that is low in price, but good for closing off a room for the winter and such purposes. Also better grades.

Christmas has come and gone
but there's lots of good storm-sash weather due yet.

You know a little enamel with brighten up the woodwork in your home amazingly and make it more cheerful around the place.

Painters have to eat in winter same as other people. Why not help them out by painting the walls of several rooms. Of course we think our Semi-gloss wall paint is best.

Plywood is good for so many things it is hard to point out any one particular use; but anyway it comes in big sheets that are light in weight, have beautiful grain, and won't split.

MORNING COMES!

By ANNE CAMPBELL

Morning comes! The silver dawn
Is mingled with the blue,
And sparkling on the velvet lawn
Are jewelled drops of dew.
These are my gifts: the bird's brave call,
The rambling rose upon the wall,
And courage (that is best of all)
To see the long day through!

How I would miss the sunny hours,
The birds, the elm tree's shade,
The blessing of my garden flowers,
The summer's bright parade!
But still I could endure the thrust
Of circumstance, if I morning just Brought gifts of courage and of trust
To keep me undismayed!

Never use a damp or wet cloth or holder in removing a hot dish from the oven or stove. A dry one prevents the heat from penetrating and scorching the fingers.

When preparing a bread dressing, dice and brown bacon together with the onion before adding to bread crumbs. Moisten and season the dressing as usual. The bacon and onion browned together add a splendid flavor.

She will take possession the 20th of this month. Her many friends wish her much success.

Memories of Grayling

By Margrethe Hemmingsen
(Presented before the Grayling Womans Club, Jan. 9th).

(Author's Note—Memories of Grayling as they come to me either thru memory or as they have been told to me. All stands open for correction).

I think that most of us know of the origin of the name "Grayling" but for the benefit of those who don't know, Grayling is named after the fish by that name, a species of the trout family, with which the AuSable one time abounded, but now are extinct.

The earliest memory of Grayling dates back to about 1870. At that time there were two buildings here, one used as a general store and hotel, the other owned by the railroad, which at that time was The Jackson, Saginaw and Lansing road. This was later taken over by the Michigan Central Railroad Co., now a part of the New York Central Railroad Co. The present depot was built in 1882. The first express agency was run by a Mr. Jones, and his office was where Esbera Olson now has his shoe store.

The first settlers in Crawford county, as far as history goes, were the Babbitts, Leeces, Shellenbargers, Shermans, Hartwicks and a few others, all with stories of hardships, who came here to clear the land and till the soil, burning most of the timber they cut to make room for their crops.

Nettie Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson, was said to be the first white child born in Crawford county. At least that is what Mr. Robinson himself told me. She later married Major Phillips of Owosso.

Just who the first lumberman was I am not sure. I remember hearing of the Mantzes, Black & Burns, Louis Sands, and White Paint Lumber Co. However in 1876 Mr. Rasmus Hanson, a Danish immigrant, located with his family in Manistee, sensed the possibilities of the lumber industry and came east, locating in the vicinity of Grayling. For some time they made their homes in the lumber camps, where Mrs. Hanson oftentimes performed the duties of cook. When the general store was built, then "The Company's Store", now the Hanson Hardware, the Hansons made their home upstairs, and there they remained until the home which Mrs. Hanson still lives in was built.

The chief business associates of Mr. Hanson were Nels Michelson and E. N. Salling.

First let us take a look at the town as it grew and changed in the business and residential sections.

The Burton House, now torn down, next to the Fischer Hotel, was the first hotel erected, built by Mike Hartwick. The Fischer Hotel, then known as the "Manistee House" was built by a cousin of Mrs. Andrew Peterson. Another hotel known as the Commercial House, later as the Central Hotel, was located where Burke's Garage now stands. It was twice consumed by fire. The last time in January, 1909, and was then operated and owned by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sorenson. Another hotel operated by the Meagher family once stood where the Avalanche office now is located. The Russell House, operated and owned by H. Charron, was torn down to make room for the gas station owned by Parsons & Wakeley. This had been moved from across the street just back of the Kraus Dry Goods Store, and was at one time a millinery store, belonging to the Benson family. Where Shoppengans Inn now stands was the Grayling House, built and owned by Mr. Phelps. It was twice consumed by fire, the last time on a bitter cold day in December, 1901, then owned and operated by John Rasmussen. No attempt to rebuild or clean up the place was made. A high board fence was built around it and thus it remained until the Grayling Hotel Co. was organized and Shoppengans Inn was built in 1915.

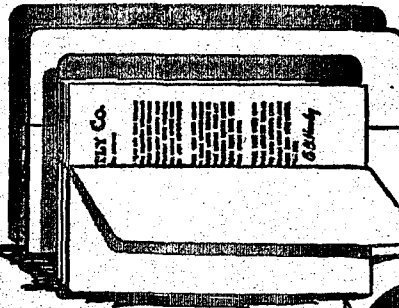

Up until this time the Michigan Central had run a dining hall in the depot but it was closed and Mr. Fink who had been its manager, took over the management of the new hotel, and continued to do so until it was purchased by Thomas Cassidy in 1928. The Annex, now part of the Inn, was built by Victor Salling and used a number of years for a bowling alley. He also built the two stores adjoining the Inn.

The building occupied by the Hanson Cafe were built by John Benson, and the Johnson Furniture store building was built by Nels Olson in 1882, and used as a saloon until Nick Schjotz opened a grocery business in it in 1918.

The Emil Kraus dry goods store is credited with being the oldest building in the business section. Just who built it is rather vague.

The 5c to $1 Store was once the Kraus Hardware, and, where the Franklin Store now stands was a tiny building in which Mr.

Public Opinion

Employing only voluntary mediation to effect labor peace, the governor's plan, if enacted by the legislature, would lean heavily upon public opinion as its enforcement arm. Accordingly, a free press is highly important to the success of the proposed labor relations plan in Michigan. Additional responsibilities would be imposed on newspapers, both dailies and weeklies.

Jud Tunkins says a lot of men regard economy as a theory that other men ought to put into practice.

FORMER RESIDENT PASSED AWAY

Word has been received of the passing of James L. Buck, a former resident of Maple Forest, at his home, 340 Highland Park Ave., Highland Park, Mich., on Dec. 31st.

Mr. Buck, who was 58 years old, was born at what is known as Buck's Hill in Maple Forest, on November 20, 1880, and his parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Holloway Buck, who were old homesteaders in that township. In 1905 he was united in marriage to Bessie Kerr of Maple Forest, and shortly afterward they left for Highland Park, where they have resided the past 35 years.

Surviving the deceased besides his widow are three daughters, and one son, Mrs. Meretta Schmid, Misses Alice and Betty and James Buck, all of Detroit, one sister Mrs. G. D. Vallad, Grayling, and two brothers Clarence Buck, Bay City and Amos Buck, Houghton Lake.

Funeral services were held at the H. W. Kuhagen Funeral chapel with burial in Forest Lawn cemetery, Detroit.

The part used for hardware was torn down and the hardware business was moved to the Buck building. This stood on the corner where the A. & P. Store now stands. In 1913 Mr. Hanson built the addition now used by the Betty Mae Beauty Shop as a rest room where people coming in from the country might rest and get a good cup of coffee.

In the Buck building was also located Fournier's Drug Store, while upstairs was the office of Dr. Insley. The first building on this corner had been a home built by the Harder family.

On the corner where the Plaza Grill stands was the Land Office Building, built in 1888, later bought by Chris Hanson and operated as a saloon. Further on was the Bank, Alexander Law Office, the Opera House, the Meagher Hotel Bldg. On the west side was the Rasmussen Livery Stable, Goudrow Shoe Store, Burgess Meat Market, the Soderburg House, a hotel, on the corner where the Chevrolet Garage now stands. On the east side were the homes of Braden, Rasmussen and Miss Culver, a sister of Mrs. Alexander. In the summer 1898 the whole block was destroyed by fire with exception of a small part of Miss Culver's house, now a part of the Harold Rasmussen home.

In 1901 or 1902, the same winter The Grayling House burned, we lost our Court House by fire. It had been set in one of the cells by a lady prisoner, early in the morning. Frank Owens, father of Mrs. Jessie Schmidt, was our sheriff. It was rebuilt as soon as possible just as it now stands.

Although it is recent history, we must not miss mentioning the old opera house, belonging to the Masons, destroyed by fire in 1930, now replaced by a modern theatre structure. No description, is necessary, we all know it and feel proud of it. But while speaking of it, let's not forget the first picture show operated in Grayling by Victor Salling in the Temple Theatre built by the I.O. O.F. in 1911.
